RE: Cboe/CBOT 10-Year U.S. Treasury Note Volatility Index Futures Lead Market Maker Program

Cboe Futures Exchange, LLC (CFE) plans to re-implement a Lead Market Maker Program for the Cboe/CBOT 10-Year U.S. Treasury Note Volatility Index (VXTY) futures contract, subject to regulatory review. CFE has submitted a rule certification which includes the terms of the Lead Market Maker Program.

Applications for participation in the Lead Market Maker Program must be submitted by 12:00 p.m. (Central time) on January 19, 2018. Applications should be in the form of a letter that includes a firm's qualifications, proposed commitments, and other information the firm deems relevant.

CFE will review all applications received and determine which firms to appoint to the Lead Market Maker Program, and then notify each applicant. Please direct all applications and any questions regarding the Lead Market Maker Program to CFEBusinessDevelopment@cboe.com or CFE Help Desk at (866) 728-2263 or helpdesk@cboe.com.
